Recruiting and Retention NCO (RRNCO)

Scope of Duties, Responsibilities, and Qualifications

Position Overview

Recruiting and Retention NCOs (RRNCOs) serve as frontline talent acquisition and retention professionals for the Idaho Army National Guard (IDARNG). RRNCOs are responsible for recruiting qualified applicants, supporting unit retention efforts, and assisting commanders in maintaining force strength and readiness throughout the organization.

RRNCOs operate in dynamic environments requiring strong communication skills, professionalism, initiative, adaptability, and the ability to build lasting relationships within local communities and supported units. Personnel serve as representatives and ambassadors of the IDARNG while engaging with applicants, families, schools, civic organizations, employers, and community stakeholders.

This assignment provides Soldiers the opportunity to develop leadership, public speaking, counseling, marketing, organizational management, and administrative skills while directly contributing to the future strength and operational readiness of the Idaho Army National Guard.

Mission Areas

• Recruiting Operations • Retention Operations • Attrition Management

General Expectations

RRNCOs are expected to conduct operations using flexible and non-standard work schedules, including evenings, weekends, and community events as mission requirements dictate. Personnel must maintain proficiency in Warrior Tasks and Battle Drills while effectively managing multiple priorities, suspense requirements, and mission demands.

RRNCOs are expected to maintain professional relationships with supported units, schools, community organizations, civic leaders, employers, families, and applicants while remaining knowledgeable on current recruiting programs, incentives, eligibility standards, and retention initiatives.

All RRNCOs are Soldiers first, Noncommissioned Officers second, and recruiting professionals always.

Duties and Responsibilities

1. Conduct canvassing, lead refinement, prospecting, digital outreach, and community engagement activities.
2. Pre-qualify prospects, referrals, prior service applicants, and current members for enlistment or reenlistment eligibility.
3. Schedule and conduct professional interviews to obtain enlistments, reenlistments, and retention actions.
4. Counsel applicants and Soldiers on qualifications, incentives, benefits, obligations, and career opportunities.
5. Prepare and process enlistment and reenlistment packets utilizing authorized recruiting systems.
6. Coordinate applicant processing activities with MEPS, medical personnel, supported units, and state agencies.
7. Conduct presentations and outreach events regarding Army National Guard opportunities and benefits.
8. Maintain partnerships with assigned units while assisting command teams with strength maintenance and attrition management.
9. Assist unit leadership through Soldier mentorship, recommendations, and retention support programs.
10. Attend unit training assemblies (MUTAs) for supported units as required.
11. Maintain and distribute recruiting and promotional materials within assigned communities and supported units.
12. Conduct interviews with applicants, Soldiers, family members, employers, and community stakeholders to evaluate program effectiveness.
13. Maintain regular communication with unit personnel to identify issues and prevent attrition.
14. Train and mentor first-line leaders on career planning, retention programs, and Soldier opportunities.
15. Provide retention feedback and reporting following unit training assemblies.
16. Utilize authorized recruiting systems to process enlistments, manage leads, schedule appointments, and track applicant progression.
17. Assist with transfer, separation, discharge, and retention-related actions as required.
18. Support Recruit Sustainment Program (RSP) operations, mentorship, and instruction as required.
19. Perform administrative and logistical tasks in support of Recruiting and Retention Battalion operations.
20. Perform additional duties as assigned.

Qualification Requirements

- Successfully complete the Army National Guard Recruiting and Retention Course (SQI4) conducted at the Strength Maintenance Training Center, Camp Robinson, Arkansas.
- Meet all suitability screening requirements in accordance with applicable regulations and policies.

ASVAB Requirements

- GT score of 110; or waiverable to GT score of 100; or GT score of 95 with an ST score of 95.

Restrictions

1. Meet all applicable Army National Guard suitability screening requirements.
 2. Have no record of conviction by special or general court-martial or qualifying civilian offenses requiring registration under applicable laws and regulations.
 3. Not have been enrolled in a drug or alcohol dependency intervention program within the previous 12 months.
 4. E4 applicants must possess a minimum of 3 years Time in Service (TIS) and completion of the Basic Leader Course (BLC).

Closing Statement

The Recruiting and Retention NCO assignment is a challenging and rewarding leadership opportunity that directly impacts the readiness and future strength of the Idaho Army National Guard. Successful RRNCOs serve as trusted professionals, mentors, advisors, and ambassadors for the organization while helping shape the next generation of Soldiers.
